15	The Vacancies for the smooth functioning of the Company Law Board may be filled up until National Company Law Tribunal is constituted.	The posts of Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Company Law Board have since been filled up. Offers of appointment have also been made to three members. One member has already joined. One other member has conveyed her acceptance of offer. The third member has conveyed regrets after having initially accepted the offer.	Yes
38	The Committee are of the opinion that unless the cadre review of the staff is done and routine inspections are outsourced, there will be no significant improvement in the matter of inspections. The Committee, therefore, desire the Government to take positive steps in this direction so that the exercise for Cadre Review is expedited and the recommendations made by Shardul Shroff Committee are finalized at the earliest so that the inspection wing of the Ministry could be strengthened and mechanism for outsourcing of Routine Inspection could be set up without further delay.	The report by Shri Shardul Shroff, convener of the Expert Group (on Inspections & Penalties) was discused in the Expert Committee on Company Law (under Charmanship of Dr. J.J. Irani) set up by Ministry of Company Affairs to make recommendations for revising the Companies Act, 1956. Various issues raised by Shri Shroff Expert Group were discussed in detail in Dr. Iran Committee and have been addressed to in the report of the Irani Committee submitted to the Government on 31.5.2005. The report has been placed on website of the Ministry (www.dca.nic.in) for general Information. The Irani committee's report is under examination. The cadre review examination is at final stage and the recommendations/report of the Ministry will be submitted to the DOPT soon. The inspection staff is presently deployed on in the Headquarter and the offices of RDs. It is being considered in the Cadre Review that inspection staff should be deployed with each ROC as well.	Yes
